NEU Industrial Action

Further to Wednesday's strike action, there are three further strike days planned by the NEU (National Education Union) on March 2nd, March 15th and March 16th. As it stands, it looks like the proposed strikes will go ahead, and therefore I would encourage you to make alternative arrangements in case we cannot open. I will keep you updated, and with as much notice as possible.

East Sussex Highways: Works to pavement on Acacia Road

East Sussex Highways will be carrying out footway surfacing works on Acacia Road on 15th-21st February. I gather the road will remain open, but with parking restrictions in place (there will be 'no parking' signs and cones laid out to advise where parking is restricted. Thank you on advance for your cooperation.

Please contact the school office if you require any further information.

I hope you enjoy the weekend.

Yours sincerely,
